

Fair Housing Is The Law No Matter Where You Are From

Picture

HOUSING DISCRIMINATION IS ILLEGAL

Are you new to this country? You have a right to fair housing. It is against the law to refuse to rent or treat someone differently because of where they are from, what they look like, their religion, sex, or disability.

Housing discrimination may look like this:

- “Sorry, I don’t rent to immigrants.”
- “I don’t take anyone without five years of credit and rental history.”
- “Your English is not good enough.”

Get Help Now – Don’t Wait

Community Teamwork Fights Housing Discrimination. Contact the Fair Housing Program at CTI. Contact us at (978)654-5736 or fairhousing@commteam.org. Let us know if you need an interpreter or reasonable accommodation. The Fair Housing Program does not ask or collect information on immigration or citizenship status.

The work that provided the basis for this publication was supported by funding under a grant with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. The substance and findings of the work are dedicated to the public. The author and publisher are solely responsible for the accuracy of the statements and interpretations contained in this publication. Such interpretations do not necessarily reflect the views of the Federal Government.