

Finding an apartment is hard It's harder for victims of discrimination

Picture

HOUSING DISCRIMINATION IS ILLEGAL

Report housing discrimination, enforce your rights. It is against the law to refuse to rent to someone because of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identification or expression, family status, disability, source of income, age, or veteran status.

Housing discrimination may look like this:

- “Are you sure you can take care of this place?”
- “Sorry, I don’t rent to immigrants.”
- “We have Christian values in this home.”
- “I’m not sure you will be comfortable here.”

Get Help Now – Don’t Wait

Community Teamwork Fights Housing Discrimination. Contact the Fair Housing Program at CTI. Contact us at (978)654-5736 or fairhousing@commteam.org. Let us know if you need an interpreter or reasonable accommodation. The Fair Housing Program does not ask or collect information on immigration or citizenship status.

The work that provided the basis for this publication was supported by funding under a grant with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. The substance and findings of the work are dedicated to the public. The author and publisher are solely responsible for the accuracy of the statements and interpretations contained in this publication. Such interpretations do not necessarily reflect the views of the Federal Government.