

Fair Housing Is The Law

Assistance Animals Are Not Pets

HOUSING DISCRIMINATION IS ILLEGAL

Do you have an assistance animal? You have a right to fair housing. The Fair Housing Act protects people with disabilities. You have a right to a reasonable accommodation or modification, including having an assistance animal.

Housing discrimination may look like this:

- “Sorry, no pets allowed here.”
- “This condo only allows small dogs or cats.”
- “If you have an animal, I need an extra deposit.”

Get Help Now – Don’t Wait

Community Teamwork Fights Housing Discrimination. Contact the Fair Housing Program at CTI. Contact us at (978)654-5736 or fairhousing@commteam.org. Let us know if you need an interpreter or reasonable accommodation.

The work that provided the basis for this publication was supported by funding under a grant with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. The substance and findings of the work are dedicated to the public. The author and publisher are solely responsible for the accuracy of the statements and interpretations contained in this publication. Such interpretations do not necessarily reflect the views of the Federal Government.